

Dear Parents/Carers

12th January 2018

This week have continued to explore the Seven New Wonders of the World. We discovered amazing facts, dates and reasons for the remarkable landmarks. We have started to further our geographical knowledge of the world and have successfully located continents and oceans; and explored England and labelled the capital cities.

In maths we have worked hard on our multiplication and are beginning to gain further understanding of division and its links to fractions.

Letter from the Queen

Miss Gulliford's class wrote a persuasive letter to the Queen, last term, suggesting that she take a day off to enjoy her 70th Anniversary with Prince Phillip. We were really surprised to receive a letter from the Queen's Lady-in-Waiting thanking us for our letters and artwork; as well as a postcard from Buckingham Palace. A reporter from the Gazette came to interview the children today and to take photos of us and our letters. (See our website under 'News' for a copy of the Queen's letter).

Homework Task and How to Help at Home Sheets

The children will be bringing home a new Homework Task and How to Help at Home Task Sheets for this term. Your help in supporting the children's learning at home is greatly appreciated.
