

My week at nursery

11th – 15th September 2017

Things I have been doing this week...

I have been busy this week drawing my self-portrait; we have been focussing on the different feature of our faces and thinking about the different colours we can see. Have a look on our class display to see the finished results.

We have also been talking about our worries this week, to help us overcome our worries we have been feeding them to Boris the worry monster, he eats the worries and helps to make them go away.

Others things I may have enjoyed are:

Stickle bricks

Dinosaurs in the sand

Making cakes with playdough

Teddy bears in the water

Colouring and drawing monsters

Playing in the home corner

Duplo

Listening to stories

Painting

And playing in the nursery garden.
