

The school looked very patriotic today with everyone wearing their red, white and blue outfits. We have had a fun time celebrating the Royal wedding; thank you to everyone who bought in cakes to share; they looked amazing and were scrumptious. Well done to Freya and Ewan for winning the prize for the best cupcakes in Years 3 and 4.

This week, we have enjoyed looking at robot artwork, researching Eric Joyner's work to help us create our own recycled robots. In maths, we have consolidated shapes and started to interpret data from bar charts and line graphs. In literacy, we have been brushing up our grammar; working on possessive apostrophes and persuasive adverts; looking at the different writing techniques used.

Mrs Grimwood's/Mr Huggins' class made the most of the lovely weather during their forest school session and explored dens and painting outdoors.

Homework

The children have a Data handling worksheet to complete this week for homework. They should be able to use the skills we have been practicing in class.
